Trailer "CÚPAK-LOKO?" is a slow-paced novel in the Amish realist tradition. It is told in first person voice, from the perspective of a main character who is trying to make sense of his life after becoming involved in a series of mysterious killings. It is a story about a boy named Levi Yoder, who is trying to do the right thing while those around him are not so inclined. Q: How can I find out if a given chemical contains a fluorine anion? I am not very familiar with chemistry and I have to find out if a chemical contains a fluorine anion. I found the following online source that has the following table: The table shows the typical elements, their element symbol and its chemical properties. It also shows typical ions, but there are no ions that matches the name of the chemical given in question. If I had to guess, I would say that S_{ce}(H₂O)_S contains a fluorine anion and I would probably be right. Does anyone know of a better source for such information? A: I don't know much about chemistry, but I know a little about google, and "fluorine anion". I ended up finding a page that gives you some information about many different elements. It looks like this is the site you are looking for
