Posted by ceje on 15/2/18 | 15:02:25 One more gameplay again! I'm sorry it took a long time to update, I haven't been able to focus on it over the last few days, but more updates are coming soon. I'm doing much better with my health than I was a couple of weeks ago. EXEGI is a great character, I've been around a few people online in BDO and when I get to talking with them, some of the earliest things I get done with them in conversation is play Lex on their character. They also say Elegi feels so right to play for them that they're already thinking about which character they might switch to. Hopefully people who aren't familiar with the game get a chance to play it and decide for themselves what's so great about Elegi. If you're into action RPGs, maybe give it a try, you won't regret it! EXEGI - The Exegi are a group of young aasimar who rebelled against the Elder God Il'lah, who was trying to create the perfect race and they set out to create their own version of the aasimar. But while they succeeded in creating an incredibly intelligent people, Il'lah decided they were still too crude and didn't fit into the Divine Plan. He cast a curse, that the Exegi would only be protected from corruption by an avatar made of pure will and grace. To create the avatar he gave the Exegi true will and was making their will and their game, and their dreams but not their sins. • An Exegi is formed when an avatar is created. • An avatar is an NPC that gives the Exegi a predetermined will and tells them how to play the game. Avatars can be male or female. • Avatars have two hearts. One represents your character's will and the other represents your character's grace. • Avatars can only be made of will and grace, and not created from the base elements as the Exegi can. Avatars created from will and grace have three hearts: The will heart, the grace heart, and the heart of the sky. • Avatars are created by an Ex bff6bb2d33
