Overcomer of common demons of man.(This story appeared in the August 2019 issue of HOW Magazine.) Editor's Note: This story has been updated with additional details about how PayPal handles canceled payments. There were no shortage of marketing gurus in the 19th century. And the turn of the 20th century would be no different. The message trickling down from the white-noise machine of far-out advertising was: You're an adult. And you're single. And you don't want to be single anymore. With the popular literature of the era, some might say this is what became known as a "lad's mag." A man's world, sans women, and your hormones must be off the wall for you to be reading a book like this. But this particular book, The Perfect Gentlemen, was anything but a typical lad's mag.

(*) Recommended Minimum System Requirements: * Windows 8.1 or above * X86 or 64bit * Pentium IV 3.06GHz or above * 2 GB RAM * *.Net Framework 3.5 * 1.6 GB Available space * Real-time RAM : 2.5 GB * Real-time processor : 1.8 GHz Installs a WinRAR shortcut in the Start Menu, Minimize it to the system tray (using the "WinRAR shortcuts" plugin found in the [URL= shortcuts[/URL] section) I have the OS Vista, 32 bits, with 4 GB of RAM and a 2,2 Ghz Dual-Core Processor. I've installed the newest WinRAR 5.6 Now, in the first time, WinRAR create this path for the shortcut: "C:\ProgramData\WinRAR\WinRAR.exe" "C:\Users\UserName\AppData\Roaming\WinRAR\WinRAR.cab\WinRAR" Then, when I quit WinRAR, the path is changed by the path of the last WinRAR.exe used, so in the second time, when I restart WinRAR, the path is changed to: "C:\ProgramData\WinRAR\WinRAR.exe" "C:\Users\UserName\AppData\Roaming\WinRAR\WinRAR.cab\WinRAR.exe" I can't help noticing that the shortcut is renamed constantly. (Well, there's an option in WinRAR to rename the shortcut, it also works for WinRAR 5.6). I've tried to rename the shortcut, right click on it, then left click and chose Rename, I can't choose a new name. I even tried to rename it with Notepad, still not able to change the name. I've also tried to rename the extension of the shortcut (Right click on it, left click and choose Rename), I can also't choose a new extension.
