Brett King Brett King (born March 13, 1969) is a Canadian retired professional ice hockey player who spent most of his career in the American Hockey League. King was born in Toronto, Ontario, but grew up in Huntsville, Ontario. He graduated from the University of Michigan with a degree in History. He started playing in the Ontario Hockey League in 1988-89, but made no impact in the nine-game season. King was selected in the third round, 46th overall, by the Washington Capitals in the 1989 NHL Entry Draft. He then moved to the American Hockey League to play for the Baltimore Skipjacks from 1990 to 1993. In 1993-94, King was drafted by the San Jose Sharks in the fourth round, 84th overall, of the 1993 NHL Entry Draft. King then played five years for
