Video Editor. What are we doing today in this. The Canberra Raiders have locked in superstar Johnathan Thurston for the next two years. Thurston's contract will be for two seasons and he will re-sign for another season beyond that. He will play for the Canberra Raiders until at least the end of the 2018 season. The Raiders, however, have finalised a new deal with Cowboy's fullback James Tamou. It will be for one season. The Raiders have also kept stand-out forward Josh Papalii and halfback Aidan Sezer. Raiders Coach Ricky Stuart said he was "thrilled" to be able to commit Johnathan Thurston for the next two seasons. "Johnathan is one of the best players in the competition, and I am so pleased he has re-signed with the Raiders," he said. "We know that he still has a lot of footy in him and I am confident that he is only going to get better as he gets older." The Raiders signed 28-year-old Sezer to a two-year deal in November following the release of Josh Dugan. It is the first-time forward has been extended with the Club. Meanwhile, Canberra star halfback Ashley Graham will play on for another three seasons. Graham signed a two-year contract extension yesterday. "I've been going through the tests on my injured shoulder," he said. "It is a bit sore, but I feel it is pretty good." The Raiders will lock in Sezer, Graham, hooker Josh Hodgson, Ryan Sutton and centre Edrick Lee for at least the next two seasons.
