The Yankees began the month of May with the best record in Major League Baseball at the All-Star break. They will enter their series with the Tigers at Comerica Park on Friday with a 10-4 record, and they head into their three-game series against the Tigers with a healthy 1.5 game lead in the AL East.On Wednesday, the Yankees honored the all-time home run leader with a ring ceremony in the press box at the Stadium. Afterward, the Yankees said that with his first career home run on Wednesday, Didi Gregorius, a native of Curacao, his native island, became the first player born in the Caribbean to hit a home run as an MLB player. Gregorius is getting ready to celebrate his 20th birthday in a week.During the ring ceremony, Yankees President Randy Levine and Joe Torre, the former Yankees manager and longtime Braves bench coach, praised Gregorius on the Yankees' achievements in 2019.Gregorius grew up in a baseball family, with his uncle the former major league pitcher Onil Soler. His father, Josuem, is a former major league pitcher who now lives in the Dominican Republic.His home country's proud of Didi, and he's also proud of his hometown."This is a special moment for me," Gregorius told the media. "It's a special honor, something I never expected in my life. I'm very thankful to the Yankees, to the organization, to the fans in Curacao. We'll never forget this."
