
Edain Mod 4.4 Download Fixed

This mod might be one of the biggest mod out there because the whole thing is based on the Warcraft III. It makes no sense why Lothlorien and Rivendell are available in RTS. If you want to play a RTS game (which isn't against me) play Edain. Or if you dont like Edain play Warcraft III. Its hard for me to become attached to any of these factions, because all they do is tickle my fancy on paper. But Lothlorien. All their units scream special snowflake. And the Bows. Im using all Lothlorien bows and all of them are deadly, because they're different. If you equip Lothlorien Bows you can add damage to the Bow skill. (Don't bother equipping the Lothlorien Bow in Lothlorien though, because it screws up the magic damage of the bows.) Edain's hero upgades can be found here - In beta (right now) Edain's hero upgades can be found here - In beta (right now) The Dwarf mod. Or maybe its just the Isengard (cursed) or the Siege of Gondor mod, Im using the siege of Gondor mod, it sucks. The Dwarves, though, they have the Hammer of the Dwarvish, which sounds amazing. Their halberds are fun to behold, provided you get the heroes right. The green stuff is nice, and the units have level design, which I always like. As for some old man nonsense, the main one is Orthanc. Yes it has been overhauled and looks great. The first one was a really crappy remake, but Im glad theyre changing it. I could never see it in the game. As for some old man nonsense, the main one is Orthanc. Yes it has been overhauled and looks great. The first one was a really crappy remake, but Im glad theyre changing it. The siege of Gondor looks great. They were trying to make a good remake, they didnt, but the game itself is very fun. The siege of Mordor looks great. The Forge of War mod gives 2 forge buildings, The forge of Renfro and The forge of Gundabad, so it gives 2 profession skills, like Blacksmith and Silver smith, and 2 cultural skills. As well as 4 crag worker, 4 camp worker, 1 lumberjack, 1 miner, 1 ranger, and 2 warrior. In terms of the collection of troops mod, the Dwarf Castle mod was made by a guy named Adam, and it has a lot of dudes. It just looks so fucking cool. The Isengard (cursed) is one of the better mods out there. There is so much to do. Now it doesnt have as much in terms of buildings, maybe there should be more, the siege could use some improvement, the creep generator could use some more stuff. But its still a good mod.
