Gouz Park (, ;, Gurzovo, formerly also Grevsko, and Kyaysky) is a town in the Belgorod Oblast of Russia. It is the administrative center of the Gouzsky District of the oblast. Population: History It was originally known as Grevsko (, the modern translation would be Mittelland), but was renamed to Kyaysky (Macedonian: "Sea") in 1717. In 1945 it was renamed in honor of Vladimir Dmitrievich "Gouz", the first among a number of military leaders of the Russian Empire who won the Battle of Grevenny in 1611. The town was established in 1954 in place of the older, abandoned village of Kurzovo. Economy Belgorod's economy is closely connected with industry. The Ulanovo Chemical Plant is located in Gouz. I asked her if she wanted to play a game with me, and she said "Okay". I proceeded to look for an old 50s cart. And, we started playing. We were both on an adventure. After a few plays I suddenly stopped, and suggested that maybe we play a game of follow the leader. I stopped and said, “you are the leader.” Then I gave her a look. “And, no arguments,” I continued. “I’m the leader.” She smiled. I kept looking, and found the cart. This was back in 1990. And, I found it at the Salvation Army store. I bought it. She had a great time with it. At that moment, I realized that I would make sure that
