What students are saying As a current student on this bumpy collegiate pathway, I stumbled upon Course Hero, where I can find study resources for nearly all my courses, get online help from tutors 24/7, and even share my old projects, papers, and lecture notes with other students. Kiran Temple University Fox School of Business '17, Course Hero Intern I cannot even describe how much Course Hero helped me this summer. It's truly become something I can always rely on and help me. In the end, I was not only able to survive summer classes, but I was able to thrive thanks to Course Hero. Dana University of Pennsylvania '17, Course Hero Intern The ability to access any university's resources through Course Hero proved invaluable in my case. I was behind on Tulane coursework and actually used UCLA's materials to help me move forward and get everything together on time. Vancouver police are releasing new footage showing an officer smashing the window of a man's car while they're inside it. It happened on Feb. 2, but the footage was not released until now because it showed a "person of interest." The incident was captured by police dashboard cameras and an officer in the truck's mirror recording camera. READ MORE: Vancouver police, lead agency on G20 investigation launch lawsuits over G20 policing The police force says the officer was conducting "general surveillance" while on patrol when he observed a black Tahoe driving into a parking lot. He then said the driver exited the car, but only to slam the door shut. Story continues below advertisement The officer then said the driver tried to cover up the fact he was trying to get into the car by reaching under the driver's seat. The officer then got into the Tahoe and pulled it over. Police said the officer then got out of the car, smashed the window with his baton and ordered the driver to put his hands on the dashboard.
